

First Baptist Church of Worcester, Massachusetts announces:
FOURTH ANNUAL ANTHEM COMPETITION
$1300.00 prize

To composers under the age of 40.
Birth date no earlier than January 2, 1970

Anthem submissions will be written according the following guidelines:

1. SATB 4-part style with organ accompaniment. Part writing may include unison and various voice combinations or unaccompanied sections. Minimal divisi and inserted solos accepted.
2. Length is at the discretion of the composer.
3. Compositions previously written on other texts will not be accepted. Text for 2010 competition is:

The LORD is king, he is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed, he is girded with strength. He has established the world; it shall never be moved; your throne is established from of old; you are from everlasting. The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their roaring. More majestic than the thunders of mighty waters, more majestic than the waves of the sea, majestic on high is the LORD! Your decrees are very sure; holiness befits your house, O LORD, forevermore.

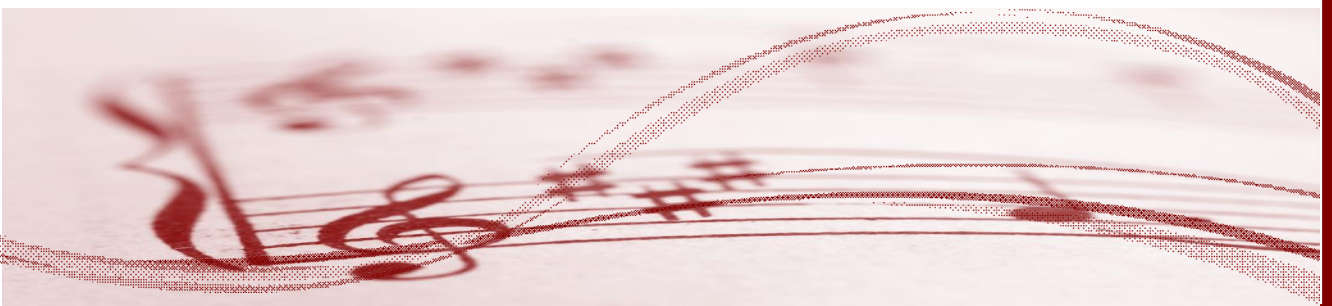

Psalm 93, NRSV

10. Mail entries to: William Ness, 2010 Anthem Competition, First Baptist Church, 111 Park Avenue, Worcester MA 01609. Use only your surname and address on the outside of the mailer.
11. Electronic submissions accepted by email to cindyj@fbc-worc.org in PDF format with proper cover letter for identification with the above requirements followed. If you e-mail your score, please remember you must mail your check and identification the same day or earlier.
12. Postmark/email date no later than Monday, January 4, 2010 barring any national emergency or mail strike. If such an emergency occurred our deadline would be extended to the next official business day.

Entries will be juried by impartial judges with the winner being announced by March 5, 2010. All guidelines are to be strictly followed or your entry will be disqualified. Winner should be prepared to submit a short biographical sketch and publicity photograph upon request.

An official First Performance will be given by Chancel Choir and Minister of Music & Arts, William Ness at First Baptist Church on the Sunday of Music & Arts Weekend, May 2, 2010. A recording will be provided to the composer after the first performance. The prize of $1300.00 will be sent upon reception of a final approved manuscript. Compositions from the winner will not be accepted two years in succession. FBC retains the rights not to select a winner if no composition is deemed prize-worthy. The composer retains the rights to publish the composition, but will acknowledge on the manuscript that it was commissioned by The First Baptist Church of Worcester, Massachusetts. First Baptist Church will have unlimited rights to copy, perform and record the composition for its own use. Any profits from sales of a recording by First Baptist Church will include 10% for the composer. Please direct all questions to William Ness, Minister of Music & Arts, 508-755-6143 or visit www.fbc-worc.org.

One good resource to consider for composing for the pipe organ is A Guide to the Pipe Organ for Composers and Others available through the American Guild of Organists:
